

Speaker Profile

Lorna Williams is an independent consultant for the Chemicals and Materials sector, holding a rolling contract to run the Secretariat for BASA, the British Adhesives & Sealants Association for the UK and Ireland, a trade association for the Adhesives and Sealants industry with around 95 members.

With a background in Materials Science and over 34 years' experience in a number of technical and commercial roles related to the adhesives and sealants and construction products markets, Lorna is heavily involved with aspects of UK, European and International standardisation and is actively involved with many other European National Associations within FEICA, the European Adhesives and Sealants Association.

Summit session:

Title:

Abstract:

Is the World Ready for a Sustainable Product Market?

TBC

TBC

Sustainable Polymers in Liquid Formulation Summit 2026

22 October 2026 | London, UK