

Speaker Profile

Lara Dammer, MA Pol Sci, is the Head of Department Policy & Strategy at nova-Institute. She holds a Master's degree in Political Science from Bonn University. The focal points of her work are the political framework for the material use of renewable raw materials, CCU and Circular Economy, national and international climate, resource and environmental policy, companies' sustainability strategies, market analysis as well as standardisation and certification of bio-based and CO₂-based products.

Lara also acts as the Renewable Carbon Initiative's (RCI) Public Affairs Coordinator. In this role, she is actively involved in several European policy processes that work on advancing the renewable carbon economy.

Summit session:

Title:

Abstract:

EU & UK Economy Landscape - policy perspectives

TBC

TBC

Sustainable Polymers in Liquid Formulation Summit 2026

22 October 2026 | London, UK