Celebrate the festive season

RSC Burlington House offers you a captivating venue in Central London

This festive season, discover six heritage spaces for your next event, each with their own distinguishable character.

Each space provides the perfect backdrop for you and your guests to indulge in a curated menu of contemporary and seasonal food choices. Complete the picture with considered pairings of wine, beer, spirits or non-alcoholic beverages - and toast another great year.

“The whole event proceeded without a hitch. It was a well organised event at a great location. One of the team stated that it was the best food of any institute he had visited in London.”

Nigel Mason, PV Consulting Ltd.
